Virtual Book Fairs

There was general discussion of the recent virtual book fairs managed by the ABAA and Marvin Getman. Sandra reported that she had participated in both as a dealer and found the Getman show very well run while speed and search issues plaguing the ABAA fair. She feels they will work out the kinks in the months ahead. Marvin Getman plans to host a virtual fair the first Tuesday of every month and running through the Thursday of that same week. Sandra urged everyone to look into, she was happy with the costs and her sales. His next fair is scheduled for Tuesday, July 7th. Information can be found here: Getman's Virtual Book & Paper Fair.

Book Fairs

As of the time of the meeting, Sandra reported that both the Boston ABAA Rare Book Fair and Marvin Getman's Shadow Show have not been canceled. She believed a decision on both shows would be coming in July.

With no further business, the meeting adjourned at adjourned at 10:46 a.m.
